7 July 1976

STATINTL

Dear Bill:

Thank you so much for your nice note concerning my new appointment. I will give it everything I have. The future will have its fair share of problems, but there will be at least an equal number, if not more, opportunities as well.

I am pleased and privileged to have the support and friendship of fine professionals like you and we, of course, will all work together to make the future as rosy as possible.

All the best

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
